If yes, identify each foreign principal and describe in full detail your activities and services:

We have sent them regular small amount of money of a couple of hundred dollars to buy the necessary things that they need such as: medicine, foods, clothings, batteries and shoes. However, recently the enemy has sent out troops to attack friendly forces in the jungle and arrested 20 villagers but were released later when finding no fault in them; the recent armed violences by bandits has made the going out and coming back to their zones more difficult.

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity<sup>5</sup> as defined below? Yes ☐ No ☐

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

Thus far, we have only provided advice by phone to our foreign principals on what to do as each situation occurred in their areas. We have no means to get to them, but they keep calling us regularly for money and advice concerning each situation such as the enemy was attacking them or tried to surround them. Mostly, our advice was to tell them to stay quiet.

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits your foreign principal(s)? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, describe fully.

We inform our members at meetings of the FAs' situation and request on site donations to the fronts and divide according to the needs of each group and the people each group has. When the foreign principals have urgent needs, the contact persons just call around the members they know and sent the funds out to them immediately.
